When the summer evening's shadows Veil'd the earth's calm bosom o'er, Came a young child, faint and weary, Tapping at a cottage door; al ere "Wandering through the winding wood paths My worn feet too long have been; Let me in, oh, gentle mother, Let me in !?

Years passed on-his eager spirit Gladly watched the flying hours; "I will be a child no longer, Finding bliss in birds and flowers; I will seek the bands of pleasure, I will join the merry din-Let me in to joy and gladness, Let me in!"

Years sped on-yet vainly yearning, Murmuring still the restless heart-"I am tired of heartless folly, Let the glittering cheat depart. I have found in worldly pleasure Nought to happiness akin, hand off- I Let me in to Love's warm presence—

Years flew on: a youth no longer, Still he owned the restless heart; "I am tired of love's soft durance, 12 Sweet-voiced syren, we must part; I will gain a laurel chaplet, And a world' applause will win; Let me in to fame and glory, Let me in !"

Years fled on: the restless spirit Never found the bliss it sought. Answered hopes and granted blessings Only new aspirings brought. " I am tired of earth's vain glory, I am tired of grief and sin; Let me in to rest eternal,

Let me in!" Thus the unquiet, yearning spirit, Taunted by a vague unrest, Knocks and calls at every gateway, In a vain and fruitless quest; " Ever striving some new blessing, Some new happiness to win, At some portal, ever saying, "Let me in!"

who refused him. The Judge, on hearing this, said he was astonished at her want of ambition. "How so?" said her father. "Why, she refuses to be a Princess of the Blood."

On board one of the steamboats there was a very beautiful girl, whose comeliness and grace attracted much attention. When the bell rang for the passengers to pay their money, a stranger asked what it was for, and was told it was the "bell" for the money "No," said Mr. H., pointing to the girl, "there is the "belle" for the money."

A lady whose virtue, like Emilia's "hung rather loosely on her," and who had been thrown into a fever by various strictures on her character, was mentioning, in the presence of Mr. H., that she intended visiting Bedford Springs for the benefit of her health "Madam," said the Judge, if there is any "virtue" at all in the Bedford water, I recommend you to drink largely." ### KIDWELL'S COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT OF BEECH DROP: Or, Cancer Root.

CELEBRATED REMEDY FOR CAN-CER, ULCERATED SORE THROAT, WHITE SWELLING, BRONCHI-TIS, DROPSY, AND ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM THE IMPURITY

OF THE BLOOD. Prepared by J. L. KIDWELL, Chemist, George The estimate that is now accorded this prepara-tion by the medical profession and by others com-petent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated profession of the Edinburg College, Scotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated character. The proprieter has been forced to make more extensive arrangements to meet the rapidly increasing lemand for BEECH DROP. VINCENNES, INDIANA, Oct. 8, 1854.

J. L. Kidwell-Dear Sir: Some three months ago, through the agency of Col. Smith Miller, our representation in Congress, I had purchased of you, for the use of my father in Scotland, one dozen Bottles of Beech Drop or Cancer Preparation. I have a letter from my brother, stating that the physician desires you to forward another dozen bottles. He thinks under its use the disease is arrested. I may add that my father has tried every physician of distinetien in Scotland and England, including Profes sors of Edinburg and Collleges, without relief. The disease was of three years standing, began in the right cheek, which is partially consumed. He was sufferer with constant pain, which has entirely

This case will give your preparation a popularity in Britain which no other medicine has. Direct to William Dick, Esq., Collydean, by Leslie Scotland, n care of Messrs. Penfoed, Clay & Co., Druggists, N. York, who will forward it.

Mr. Flint is a man of great influence in his county, and will with pleasure communicate with any one in reference to his case. CALLAWAY COUNTY, MISSOURI,

July 13th, 1854. }
Dear Sir—With great pleasure I inform that your preparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency For the last twelve years I have been afflicted with Scrofula of a Cancerous form. So extensive was the ulcers and so horrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties—in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any abatement of the disease. Through a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Brep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrofula in any form Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly, JNO. C. FLINT. For Sale by Druggists and Dealers in Medicines in Washington, Alexandria, and Baltimore.
